Providing practical solutions and maintaining strong relationships with clients is the corner stone of good practice.

Chris recently joined Crowe Horwath as an Associate Partner in the Sydney Tax Advisory division. Having previously worked in a Big Four firm and with the New South Wales Office of State Revenue (OSR), Chris has extensive experience in working with his clients across many areas of tax consulting.

Clients and expertise

Chris has over 20 years' experience providing practical advice and compliance services in the following areas of employment tax: payroll tax, Fringe Benefits Tax (FBT), superannuation guarantee, workers compensation and pay-as-you-go (PAYG) Withholding.

Chris has proven his experience across a broad range of industries and client categories including private companies, large corporations, government agencies and family owned businesses. He specialises in providing tax effective solutions which also take into account other tax and commercial considerations.

Throughout his career, Chris has strived to maintain strong working relationships with both the New South Wales Office of State Revenue as well as the Australian Taxation Office. He has used these connections to provide assistance to a number of clients on various employment tax audits and reviews.

Having spent 12 years at the OSR Chris understands the importance of tax compliance at all levels of Government. Chris spent a number of years undertaking State tax audits focusing on employer's obligations with the various State taxes across a number of industries and structures.
