

Welcome

John Warda, Director ICHCA International
And Chairman ICHCA Australia

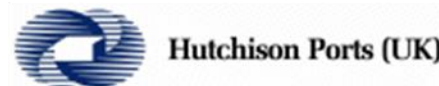

Global Shippers Forum & ICHCA International Conference & Exhibition Melbourne, Australia 8 to 11 May 2018

ICHCA

INTERNATIONAL

The voice of global cargo handling

PREMIUM MEMBERS:

History

- International Cargo Handling Co-ordination Association
- Independent, not-for-profit organisation
- Founded in 1952 to share lessons learned from logistics operations during World War II
- Dedicated to improving the productivity, efficiency safety, security and sustainability of cargo handling
- Covers all modes of transport
- HQ in London, UK (covering Europe)
- Regional chapters in Japan, Australia and Canarias/West Africa

Members

- Members in 37 nations:
 - Port authorities
 - Stevedores and terminals
 - Transport and logistics operations
 - Shipping lines
 - Insurers and P&I Clubs
 - Surveyors and consultants
 - Government administrations/organisations
 - Manufacturers and service companies
 - Other membership organisations
 - Individual members

Services

- Focus on improving the productivity, safety and security of cargo handling
- Active NGO (non-governmental organisation)
- ICHCA Technical Panel
- Technical advice, consultancy and training services to the cargo handling industry
- Workshops, seminars, roadshows and conferences
- Conferences and networking with Government and industry

NGO status

- NGO status and involvement in:
 - IMO: International Maritime Organization
 - ILO: International Labour Organization
 - IAEA: International Atomic Energy Agency
 - ISO: International Organization for Standardization
 - UNECE: UN Economic Commission for Europe
 - UNCTAD: UN Commission on Trade and Development
- We use our NGO status to monitor, contribute to and influence development of regulations that impact cargo handling standards

NGO activities

- Current NGO activities include:
 - Code of Practice on Packing of Cargo Transport Units
 - Liquefaction of bulk cargoes and MARPOL Annex V
 - Approved Continuous Examination Programme (ACEP) for containers
 - Thorough examination of ships lifting appliances
 - IMDG and IMSBC Code amendments
 - Safe mooring arrangements
 - Maritime Single Window
 - Revision of the ILO COP on H&S in Dockwork

What we try to help prevent....

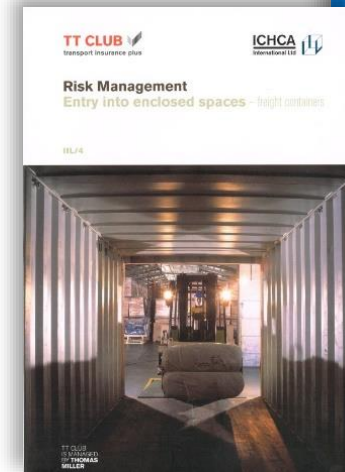

ICHCA Technical Panel

- Approx. 80 professionals and experts from 20+ countries
- Technical advice and assistance to members
- Develops ICHCA's extensive range of technical documents, research papers etc.
- Supports ICHCA's work on international legislation
- Meets at least twice a year since 1991 worldwide
- ITP#75 - Barcelona, Spain, March 2016
- ITP#76 - London, United Kingdom, September 2016
- ITP#77 - London, United Kingdom, March 2017
- ITP#78 - Las Palmas, Gran Canaria, Spain, October 2017
- ITP#79 - The Hague, Netherlands, April 2018

Publications

- Over 90 topics in various formats including:
 - Medical standards for drivers
 - Port safety audit schemes
 - Safe use of FIBCs
 - Safe working on ro-ro terminals
 - Container Safety Code
 - Terminal lighting
 - Substance abuse in the workplace
- Joint publications and liaison with other organisations:
 - BIMCO, COA, FIATA, GSF, IAPH, ITCO, PEMA, TT Club etc.
- Discounted copies of UN regulations:
 - IMDG Code, IMSBC Code etc.

ICHCA Chapters: Australia, Canarias/West Africa, Japan

- Provide education, information exchange, business and social networking opportunities
- Monthly e-newsletters reach a wide audience and cover key topics
- Members enjoy all the benefits of ICHCA International membership
- Facilitate regional co-operation, business relationships and knowledge building
- Represent a cross-section of cargo handling interests, including shipper groups, logistics and transport service providers, port authorities, terminal operators and government/public sector agencies